

Sgt Kazimierz Cacko P.792203 PAF

Kazimierz was born on 16 January 1916, in Homel, Belarus.

He was a Wireless Operator in the Polish Air Force, serving with 18 O.T.U. at RAF Bramcote, Warwickshire, and had been awarded the ML (Polish Air Force Medal).

Wellington IC T2717 XW-C took off from Bramcote airfield on 25 June 1942, on a night operation to Bremen, Germany; part of the 1000 bomber raid. The aircraft and the five Polish crew members were lost without trace.

Kazimierz's body was never recovered and he is commemorated on the Northolt Polish War Memorial, Middlesex. He was 26 years old.

Sgt Kazimierz Cacko PAF (killed)
P/O Roman Balicki PAF (killed)
F/S Jozef Emil Franciszek Jaskiewicz PAF (killed)
F/O Franciszek Kusek PAF (killed)
Sgt Juliusz Brunon Herbert Lech-Pierozynski PAF (killed)

He is commemorated on Panel 16

Photo courtesy of www.listakrzystka.pl