

Flt. Sgt. Ronald Herbert Lawn 427652 RAAF

Ronald 'Ron' Lawn was a 31-year-old Australian mid-upper gunner who was killed along with the rest of his crew when their aircraft was lost during a raid on Berlin on the night of 2/3 January 1944.

He was part of the crew of Lancaster JB606 AR-H, of 460 (RAAF) Squadron, which was one of 27 aircraft lost during a raid that had been delayed by the weather and necessitated a change in route to and from the target.

JB606 was one of 20 Lancasters from 460 that had been sent from RAF Binbrook for the raid and is understood to have been shot down homebound, crashing in flames near the village of Mückendorf, 30 miles south of Berlin. There were no survivors.

Ron and his crew had joined 460 early in November 1943 and the Berlin raid was their sixth together, most of them being operations to the German capital. They came together in part at No. 27 Operational Training Unit in Lichfield before completing their training at No. 1656 Heavy Conversion Unit at Lindholme before joining 460 at RAF Binbrook.

He came from Perth and lived in the suburb of Subiaco with his wife, Leonie, and their two small boys Brian and David. Ron was born in Kalgoorlie, was the son of George and Esther Lawn and had been educated at the Central School in Boulder and later at Perth Technical school. He had worked as a Film Exchanges Booker with MGM in Perth.

The others who died with him were the pilot Flt. Sgt. Reg Rowley RAAF, flight engineer Sgt. William Fleming, navigator F/O Edward Truscott RAAF, bomb-aimer F/O Aubrey Robinson RAAF, wireless operator Flt. Sgt. Lambert Chester RAAF and rear gunner F/O Henry Bennett. All were buried in Mückendorf church cemetery before being reinterred after the war in Berlin War Cemetery.

Ron's name can be found on panel 061.
