ACW2 Hazel Beatrice Miller 440441 WAAF

Hazel was born on 4 December 1922 in Eastbourne, Sussex. She was the daughter of Jeanette Eileen Miller and step-daughter of Sgt. James Bellinger. When war was declared Hazel was employed as a Nursery Housemaid in a private household.

At the time of her death Hazel was serving as a Cook & Butcher with No. 15 OTU at RAF Harwell, Oxfordshire.

In July 1941 Hazel was admitted to the Princess Mary's Royal Air Force Hospital Halton, Buckinghamshire, where, on 27 July 1941, she died of septicemia.

Hazel is buried at St Michael Churchyard, Halton, Buckinghamshire.

Hazel is commemorated on Wall Panel 74.

Hazel's step-father, Sgt James Bellinger was killed on 27 August 1942 whilst serving as a WOp/AG with 142 Squadron. He is commemorated on Wall Panel 8.
