

Sgt. Raymond Frederick Stainsby 1528611 RAFVR

Raymond was born in September 1922, the son of Benjamin and Betsy Stainsby, of Dormanstown, Redcar, North Yorkshire.

He was a Navigator serving with 1663 Heavy Conversion Unit based at RAF Rufforth, North Yorkshire.

Handley Page Halifax V, DG412 -B, took off from Rufforth airfield on 27 August 1943, on a daytime Bullseye exercise; it was the final flight before completing their training, and was returning from a mission to bomb Brest, in France. During the flight, the pilot lost control while practicing evasive action, and in the dive that followed, the aircraft came apart under the excessive loads imposed upon its airframe. It was considered almost certain the crew were trapped by the centrifugal force, and their bodies were recovered from the crash site at Langtree, four miles south west of Great Torrington, Devon.

Raymond is buried at Redcar Cemetery, North Yorkshire. Plot F. Row 36. Grave 4. The epitaph reads "Sheltered by the rock of ages, anchored on the golden shore". He was 20 years old.

A granite memorial stone in the village of Langtree commemorates the loss of the crew; the dedication service being held on the 66th anniversary of the crash, with members of the airmen's families attending.
